Australian Dental and Oral Health Therapists' Association Inc Advertising Guidelines

1. Introduction

Advertising is a persuasive and powerful medium. Minimum standards and Codes are determined by Federal law, State laws and the Dental Board of Australia regulates the advertising for the dental field.

2. Purpose of these guidelines

- a. To help determine the material that will be accepted for advertising on the ADOHTA official website www.adohta.net.au and/or ADOHTA Newsletter, Emails or Facebook.
- b. To determine that material in no way conflicts with the Purposes of the Association as outlined in the ADOHTA Constitution.
- c. To determine as much as possible that misleading information or statements are not included in any advertising material.
- d. To determine if the product to be advertised is of benefit to the members of the ADOHTA

3. Cost of Advertising

For all advertising refer to the Advertising Rates Schedule below for current fees, deadlines and size restrictions.

4. Information for Advertisers

- a. Advertisements can be placed in:
  - the ADOHTA Newsletter – 3 per year (by electronic media)
  - the ADOHTA Website
  - Email Bulletins sent to all members
  - Other vehicles as seen fit by the ADOHTA Council eg Conference Documents
  - Facebook

Please note the ADOHTA Journal has separate advertising guidelines to these.

- b. Categories accepted include:
  - Continuing Professional Development
  - Dentally related products including software and clothing
  - Dental practices
  - Employment Opportunities
  - Others as seen fit by the ADOHTA Council
- c. ADOHTA shall only accept advertising of any product or from any company which supports the beliefs, ideals and objectives that the association seeks to promote

- d. Advertisements must not mislead viewers into thinking that the product or service is endorsed by the ADOHTA
- e. ADOHTA seeks to build networks with likeminded organisations. These organisations may offer reciprocal arrangements for event advertising
- f. The advertising may display product name, company name, web and contact details, logo and text about the product and for online advertising, a link to the advertisers' website
- g. The advertisement will have a set period of exposure and placement within the medium will be determined by the ADOHTA

5. Applications to advertise

- a. Applications must be in writing to admin@adohta.net.au and accompanied by payment.
- b. The application will be reviewed by the ADOHTA Council at their next meeting
- c. Successful advertisements shall appear in the next issue or as soon as practicable after acceptance
- d. If in the case that the application is not successful, all monies will be returned to the unsuccessful advertiser.
- e. Enquiries can be made by email to admin@adohta.net.au or mail to above address
